

I am appalled that the same mistake may be made with our television media as was allowed with our airwaves. There is a strong and valid reason these restrictions were put into place in the first place - monopolies can be and are a dangerous dangerous thing, no matter who's interest they represent and should be prevented at all costs!